or you're not. *Mobo-

What a horrible thing yellow is. Degas

The sound of colors is so definite that it would be hard to find anyone who would express bright yellow with bass notes, or dark lake with the treble. Wassily Kandinsky

PROMISE

Poetry is a theorem of a yellow-silk handkerchief knotted with riddles, sealed in a balloon tied to the tail of a kite flying in a white wind against a blue sky in spring. Carl Sandburg

don't know. JD Salinger

Life is a loaded gun that looks right at you with a yellow

Yellow is my favorite,
but what is yellow?
Handmade into white, it is a slight tarnish of pure light. Take away a bit of whites absolute luminosity, and what remains is yellow.

Oh yes! He loves yellow this good Vincent, this painter from Holland—those glimmers of sunlight rekindled his soul, that abhorred the fog, that needed the warmth. Gauguin

There is a sun, a light that for want of another word I can only call yellow, pale sulphur yellow, pale golden citron. How lovely yellow is! Van Gogh

The middle of the road is for yellow lines and dead arma-

Yellow is the color which is closest to light. We associate the rays of the sun and the stars with it. It is the radiance of the spirit. Ueli Seiler-Hogova

The color of yellow makes me glow. Rumi

Fame stole my yellow.
Yellow is the color you get when you're real and brutally honest.
Rosie O'Donnell

Depression to me is white yellow, washed out, exhausted miles of weak

Blue is the male principle, stern and spiritual. Yellow the female principle, gentle, cheerful and sensual. Frank Marc

If I could be a painter, I'd be a van Gogh, a van Gogh in the later stages of his career, after he changed his palette from earthy tones to brighter colors, especially yellow. But I am a photographer—and a red-green colorblind photographer at that. But I do see colors, and my eyes are very much drawn to what I call yellow (although sometimes what I think is yellow is not—I thought the two lines radiating out from the manhole cover, in the image to the left, were yellow, but my wife says they are green...). Perhaps I should have left in those images that I thought were yellow but were not. Then maybe we could have a worthwhile discussion of the question I am so often asked, and never know how to answer: "What do you see when you see yellow?"
